

Comprehensive Age Related Evaluation Checklist

Please fill out this form and bring it in at your pet's CARE appointment at Mountain View Veterinary Services. What may look like normal aging could be a manageable health condition.

Owner: _____ Pet's Name: _____ Appointment Date: _____

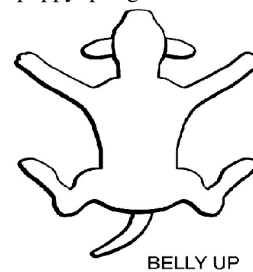

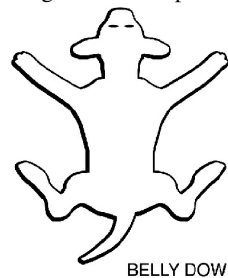

Signs	yes	no
Circling / repetitive movements / head tilts
Confusion or disorientation
Excessive barking / meowing
Less interaction with family/hiding
Less enthusiastic greeting or behavior
Tremors or shaking
Trouble hearing
Changes in sleeping patterns/location
Changes in activity level
Difficulty climbing stairs
Difficulty jumping up
Increased stiffness or limping
Exercise intolerance
Excessive panting or changes in breathing patterns, coughing
Altered appetite or difficulty chewing
Weight change
Bad breath
Increased thirst
Changes in urination or defecation
house soiling or changing litterbox habits / leaking urine
Excessive scratching
Skin or haircoat changes, lumps and bumps - please use diagram on right
Taking prescription, over the counter medications or supplements. List on back

Is your pet "over 40"?
		Dog's weight in pounds
Pet's Age	Cat	0-20	21-50	51-90	> 90
7	44	44	47	50	56
8	48	48	51	55	64
9	52	52	56	61	71
10	56	56	60	66	78
11	60	60	65	72	86
12	64	64	69	77	93
13	68	68	74	82	101
14	72	72	78	88	108
15	76	76	83	93
16	80	80	87	99
17	84	84	92	104
18	88	88	96	109
19	92	92	101
20	96	96	105

Relative age of your pet in "human years"

Senior vs Geriatric

Diagram from <http://www.puppyup.org/>

Please use diagram to mark locations of lumps and bumps.

